New All India Service for AIR and Doordarshan

2675. DR. RATNAKAR PANDEY: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Government propose to create a new all-India organised Group 'A' Service for the Programme Officers/cadres of All India Radio and Doordarshan; and

(b) if so, what are the details of the scheme and time it would take to notify the said service?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI AJIT PANJA): (a) and (b) The Government has decided to constitute a new Group 'A' Central Service, called the Indian Broadcasting (Programme) Service with comparable grades and scales found in other similar non-technical Central Services.

The new Service will have separate cadres for All India Radio and Doordarshan and separate sub-cadres within the media to meet the needs of programme management and programme production functions. A feature of the proposed Service is that it will offer scope for individual officers to achieve specialisation according to their personal preferences. The initial recruitment to the service will be in the junior time scale (Rs. 700-1300) through Union Public Service Commission.

The Indian Broadcasting (Programme) Service will come into effect when the rules therefor are notified. After approval by Department of Personnel, the rules have been referred to the Union Public Service Commission for approval. It is, however, difficult to specify the exact date by which the Service will come into effect.
